

LEADER VERSION

INTRODUCTION

Show your troop treasurer the troop bank statement for the month. Explain that this statement shows all of the ways the troop got and spent money for the month.

PART 1

Show your troop treasurer some of the things your troop spent money on this month. Possibilities may include craft supplies, badges, food, etc.

Ask the treasurer if she remembers spending money on those things. How did the troop benefit? Help the treasurer circle or draw some of these things in part 1.

PART 2

Show your troop treasurer some of the instances on the bank statement where your troop earned money. You could say something like, “Do you see this line right here where it says deposit? That means that I took all of our money we earned from selling cookies to the bank to keep it safe.” Help the treasurer circle or draw some of the ways the troop earned money this month.

PART 3

Ask your troop treasurer if she thinks the troop will spend money on something again this month. What does she think those things will be? If she doesn’t know or needs help making a prediction, explain some of the upcoming expenses and help her draw or circle a picture on her report. Explain that making a plan for spending money is called a “budget.”

PART 4

Ask your troop treasurer if she thinks the troop will EARN money again this month. How does she think that will happen? If she doesn’t know or needs help making a prediction, explain any upcoming earnings and help her draw or circle a picture on her report

PART 5

Does your troop have a fundraising goal? Maybe a camping trip, charity, or other expense? Discuss these goals with your treasurer and help her draw a picture in her workbook
